OFFICE NOTE.

File No.

Subject.

In re certain complaints against Gopala charya, Dharmadarsi of the Sri Venugopalaswamy temple in the Devanahalli Taluk.

From

The Dy. Commr Bangalore Dist

No 19 Dated 21st July 1906.

The Private Secretary to H H the Maharaja has forwarded with his D o dated 28th April 06, a cutting from a Kanarese paper for favor of remarks. The points touched therein are the following:—

Slip A)

1) That D. Gopala charya is not only a paid servant of the temple but also a Dharmadarsi, and as such he is all in all in all matters connected with the mutt

2) That the Dharmadarsi and the temple Parpathegar maintain accounts of receipts and expenditure and levy taxes on which are opened during the Jatra at the time of the car-festival and misappropriate a good deal of the income;

3) that this fact came to light and that the late Amildar Mr. Dharmaraj Selly having entrusted the collection-work to some body else, a sum of Rs 15-4-0 was realized during the last year's Jatra; but the present Amildar having entrusted the work to the said Dharmadarsi, a sum of Rs 10-4-0 was realized during this year's Jatra;

4) that the Jasoik allotted for the car-festival having been expended by the other Dharmadarsis, a saving of 15Rs was effected this year and a kind reference to the accounts for the past 10 years shows to what extent the said Gopala charya has played mischief;

5) that the said Dharmadarsi is a municipal member and that he got himself into trouble when he was entrusted with the collection of octroi duties ~~etc~~ in spite of which he has been restored in office.

Muzrai Secretariat. | File No. of 190

The cutting was referred for report to the Dy. Commr. of the Bangalore Distt and that officer has submitted a report therein together with the Vernacular records bearing on the subject.

It is observed from the records that D. Gopala charya not only holds the post of Puranik carrying a monthly stipend of Rs 0-6-5, but is also a Dharmadarsi. It is further observed that the amount fixed for the car-festival was given to the — Dharmadarsi Ramachendrappa during this year's jatra and a saving of Rs 11-7-6 was effected.

(Slip C)

The Assistant Commr. (Mr. T. Thimmaiah) reports that last year when Gopala char was not entrusted with the collection, Rs 15-4-0 were collected whereas this year Gopala Charya who was again entrusted with the collection work collected only Rs 10-4-0

(Slip D)

File No. of 190 | Muzrai Secretariat.

He further states that the combination of two offices in one and the same person is undesirable and adds that a paid servant cannot be expected to discharge the functions of a Dharmadarsi with that disinterestedness as if he held only the latter office.

The Dy. Commr. is of opinion that the allegations made against him appear to be the out-come of spite (Paper under disposal).

Muzrai Secretary's remarks.

This temple has an annual Cash Tasdik of Rs173-15-0, out of which Rs52 are stated to be allotted for the Ratotsava or Car Festival. It also appears that a small tax is levied upon the shops held during the Jatra and utilized for the benefit of the temple. It appears from the Vernacular papers that one or other of the Dharmadarsis looks after the Jatra collection and the conduct of the Car Festival annually. The Dep ty Commissioner states that the complaints brought against Dharmadarsi Gopalachar are the outcome of spite. Be this as it may, it seems objectonable that Gopalachar who is a servant of the temple should also be the Dharmadarsi thereof. The Dharmadarsis of this temple were all appointed so far back as 1897. The Deputy Commissioner may be asked to revise the list and submit suitable names for the approval of the Government, omitting all persons who hold appointments in the temple or are in any other way

Gopalachar is an important municipal member in Devanhalli He has his enemies. If he cares to retain the Office of Dharmadarsi, he may be allowed to resign the post of Puranick carrying a monthly pay of 0.6.5 in favour of any of his relations. As regards the abuses hinted at they may be easily prevented by a shrewd Amildar
